That Time I Joined the Circus... Elliot the Entertainer

Elliot the Entertainer wants you to run away with the circus! Using all of his amazing skills and with your help he will tell the tale of how he found his place in the circus! Audience members will play the part of the many characters he met and friends he made along the way. It's an epic spectacle with incredible juggling, unicycling, plate spinning, acrobatics, magic and so much more!

Maestro's Magical Mystery Maestro Steve

There is something amiss at the mansion on the hill! Come along with Maestro the Magician and discover what it is! This comedy and mystery show is all about the time that Maestro was on his way to a show and got lost in a storm. He found himself an escape from the rain in an old abandoned mansion. Inside he found a multitude of mayhem and a mischievous ghost! Help Maestro solve the mystery, get back on his journey and make it to his show on time! The Clock is ticking and the game is afoot!

Hooping Harmony Dizzy the Hooper

Have a hooptastic fun time with Dizzy the hooper! Dizzy is an expert hula hooper and good at making up silly songs. The problem is she has been hula hooping and singing for so long, she doesn't remember which way is home! With ideas from the audience, Dizzy will make up a song to help her retrace her steps. Together we will build a rhythm using recycled instruments played by the audience. Kindness and respect will play a big part in getting Dizzy back on her way, and she will be so happy she'll end with a hooping finale your audience will never forget.

Surprises in the Swamp Ozum

Hop in the boat and explore the swamp with Ozum and Bubba the alligator. You get a front row seat to the wild goings on in Bubba's Bayou - named because Bubba found it first! The marsh is full of critters large and small, diverse plant life, and giant cypress trees. Ozum can talk to all of them, and you help guide the tour which is full of comedy, slapstick and pratfalls. Audience volunteers will get to help name new species, steer the boat, and a few will get to don a costume. Patrons will never forget this romp through the wetlands with a wacky willowy guide and his gator.
